CENTRE OF ATTENTION

When creating a kitchen, it's all about flexibility and you can achieve this by opting for unfitted elements. Bespoke furniture maker Woodstock Furniture has plenty of cabinetry to choose from including a central island which gives you the opportunity to conjure an individual look to suit your home as well as a functional space to cook. Kitchens start from £30,000. woodstockfurniture.co.uk.

New PERSPECTIVE

Just as we view new buildings and structures around us, it's great to open our eyes to other new designs. The Webwood coffee table by architect and designer Fabrice Ausset has caught our attention. It has an Oregon pine top and a polished marble monolith – two materials which work beautifully together. It's from around £10,929. You can visit the showroom on the Fulham Road in London. ### OPEN CONCEPT

The demand for our kitchens to flow seamlessly and to be designed to suit a laid-back living style is increasing. Tailoring its latest range to reflect this modern necessity, Leicht has introduced the Synthia C Ceres handleless kitchen. It has a large freestanding island with standard doors and pull-outs which have been extended down to the floor to give them a cupboard feel. Kitchens start from £15,000. The debut collection at Hartnell Home is the definition of style and sophistication. A selection of opulent and classic pieces echo British designer Norman Hartnell's eye for detail. It's easy to add a touch of luxury with ornate candlesticks, dinnerware and elegant cutlery sets. Expect to pay from £45 for a set of four side plates. roullierwhite.com.

LAVISH DINING

A place to perch

One of the latest trends to watch is concrete... and it seems Cox & Cox have got it covered with the new distressed concrete-topped stool with oak legs, £120. It's one of the new additions to the 2014 collection along with the concrete-topped side table, £199, which is an ideal resting place for books or drinks. coxandcox.co.uk.
